4. FORMATION OF JOINT VENTURE AND EXECUTION

4.01 Upon execution of this Agreement, ENERTOPIA, McAllister and LEXARIA shall be deemed to have formed a Joint Venture for the evaluation, acquisition and further development of the Business.

4.02 In his present role as CEO of ENERTOPIA, McAllister routinely sources, evaluates, and examines business opportunities, new and existing, in the sector of legally produced marihuana. At times, McAllister and/or Enertopia, either of whom in their own exclusive opinion, may deem it beneficial to invite participation into a business opportunity from outside of ENERTOPIA from a financial, managerial or operational point of view, in one or more opportunities within the Sector (a "Business Opportunity").

4.03 McAllister and ENERTOPIA have NO OBLIGATION to make any particular Business Opportunity available to LEXARIA, if either ENERTOPIA or McAllister deem that particular Business Opportunity to be in the best interests of Enertopia to retain it for its own purposes, but in this case the retained Business Opportunity shall not be offered to any other individual or entity.

4.04 Whenever McAllister or ENERTOPIA have identified a Business Opportunity that they wish to offer for joint venture, they will offer it exclusively to LEXARIA for a period of 90 days, or a shorter period of time if the third party provider of the Business Opportunity so dictates (the “Evaluation Period”).

4.05 During the Evaluation Period, neither ENERTOPIA nor McAllister may make the Business Opportunity available to any person or entity other than LEXARIA. If, after the Evaluation Period has expired and LEXARIA has not entered into a binding arrangement to participate in the Business Opportunity, then either McAllister or ENERTOPIA may make the Business Opportunity available to other persons or entities besides LEXARIA.

4.06 LEXARIA has NO OBLIGATION to make any particular Business Opportunity available to ENERTOPIA, if LEXARIA deems that particular Business Opportunity to be in the best interests of LEXARIA to retain it for its own purposes, but in this case the retained Business Opportunity shall not be offered to any other individual or entity.

4.07 Whenever LEXARIA has identified a Business Opportunity that they wish to offer for joint venture, they will offer it exclusively to ENERTOPIA for a period of 90 days, or a shorter period of time if the third party provider of the Business Opportunity so dictates (the “Evaluation Period”).

4.08 During the Evaluation Period, LEXARIA may not make the Business Opportunity available to any person or entity other than ENERTOPIA. If, after the Evaluation Period has expired and ENERTOPIA has not entered into a binding arrangement to participate in the Business Opportunity, then LEXARIA may make the Business Opportunity available to other persons or entities besides ENERTOPIA.

4.09 ENERTOPIA agrees to pay LEXARIA a finder's commission, received at the sole election of LEXARIA in either cash or in common restricted shares of ENERTOPIA, within a range of 2% - 5% of the value (less of taxes) of any future Business acquisition, joint venture or transaction that ENERTOPIA accepts and closes for the life of this Agreement that was due to LEXARIA finding said opportunity.

5. OPERATION OF JOINT VENTURE

5.01 Each Business Opportunity is expected to demand consideration and compensation unique to it specifically and may be discovered through persons currently known or currently unknown to the Parties and McAllister. It is therefore not possible at the time of this Agreement to quantify or describe terms that a Business Opportunity may entail.

5.02 Each of the Parties and McAllister agree to negotiate in good faith and to the best of their abilities with each other and with any third party presenting a Business Opportunity to the Joint Venture.

5.03 Any Business Opportunity that is acquired, closed or executed by LEXARIA via ENERTOPIA shall trigger the commission payment referred to in Section 2.01 (b) at the time of closing or execution.

5.04 Any Business Opportunity that is acquired, closed or executed by ENERTOPIA via LEXARIA shall trigger the commission payment referred to in Section 4.09 at the time of closing or execution.

5.05 Any Business Opportunity that is acquired, closed or executed by LEXARIA or by ENERTOPIA shall be governed by closing documents prepared at the time of acquisition, closing or execution and to be agreed to by the Parties.

5.06 Each Party agrees to indemnify and save harmless the other from and against any loss, costs or damages it may suffer as a result of its failure to pay for its interest in any contemplated Business Opportunity.

6. RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER/RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

6.01 Except as otherwise expressly permitted in this Agreement:

- (a) no Party shall, at any time during the course of this Agreement, sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of or offer to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of its Ownership Interest unless that Party (the "Offeror") first offers by notice in writing (the "Offer") to the other Parties (the "Others") pro rata in accordance with their Ownership Interest the prior right to purchase, receive or otherwise acquire the same;
  - (b) the Offer shall set forth:
    - (i) the Ownership Interest offered for sale;
    - (ii) the consideration therefor expressed only in lawful money of Canada;
    - (iii) the terms and conditions of the sale; and
    - (iv) that the Offer is open for acceptance for a period of sixty days after receipt of such Offer by the Others;
  - (c) any of the Others may accept such Offer and by such acceptance specify any additional portion of the Ownership Interest offered for sale that such Party is prepared to purchase in the event that any of the Others fail to accept such Offer and, if any of the Others fail to accept such Offer, such Party (pro rata if more than one) shall be entitled to purchase such additional portion of the Ownership Interest as shall be so available;

- (d) if, and to the extent the Offer is not accepted, the Offeror may sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of his remaining Ownership Interest to any other person, firm or corporation (the "Third Party") only for the consideration and upon the terms and conditions as set out in the Offer but only within the period of ninety days after the expiry of the period for acceptance by the Others and, if the Offeror does not do so, the provisions of this Section 6.01 will again become applicable to the sale, transfer or other disposition of his Ownership Interest and so on from time to time;
- (e) no disposition of any Ownership Interest in the Business permitted by this Section 6.01 shall be made unless the Third Party shall have entered into an agreement with the Others by which the Third Party shall be bound by and entitled to the benefit of the provisions of this Agreement and other Others shall enter into such an agreement; and
- (f) any Party who shall have disposed of all of their Ownership Interest in compliance with the provisions of this Agreement shall be entitled to the benefit of and be bound by only the rights and obligations which arose pursuant to this Agreement prior to such disposition.

6.02 Except as specifically provided herein, no Party shall mortgage, pledge, charge, hypothecate or otherwise encumber their Ownership Interest or any part thereof without the prior written consent thereto of the other Parties, which consent may be arbitrarily withheld.

6.03 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, no Party shall be entitled to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of their Ownership Interest or any part thereof without first obtaining the consent of the other Parties, if such action would permit any other party to accelerate or demand the payment of any Joint Venture Loan.

7. DEFAULT

7.01 It is an event of default (a "Default") if a Party (the "Defaulting Party", the other Parties being the "Non-Defaulting Parties"):

- (a) fails to observe, perform or carry out any of his obligations hereunder and such failure continues for 30 days after any of the Non-Defaulting Parties have, in writing, demanded that such failure be cured;
  - (b) fails to take reasonable actions to prevent or defend assiduously any action or proceeding in relation to any of their Ownership Interest for seizure, execution or attachment or which claims:
    - (i) possession;
    - (ii) sale;

- (iii) the appointment of a receiver or receiver-manager of its assets; or
- (iv) forfeiture or termination;

of or against any of the Ownership Interest of the Defaulting Party, and such failure continues for 30 days after a Non-Defaulting Party has, in writing, demanded that the same be taken or the Defaulting Party fails to defend successfully any such action or proceeding;

- (c) becomes bankrupt or commits an act of bankruptcy or if a receiver or receiver- manager of his assets is appointed or makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors or otherwise;
- (d) fails after fourteen days' notice in writing to the other to resolve by agreement a course of conduct requiring approval of the Parties in accordance with Section 8.01 hereof.

7.02 In the event of a Default, the Non-Defaulting Parties may do any one or more of the following:

- (a) pursue any remedy available to them in law or in equity, it being acknowledged by each of the Parties that specific performance, injunctive relief (mandatory or otherwise) or other equitable relief may be the only adequate remedy for a Default;
- (b) take all actions in their own names or in the name of the Defaulting Party or the Parties as may reasonably be required to cure the Default, in which event all payments, costs and expenses incurred therefor shall be payable by the Defaulting Party to the Non-Defaulting Parties on demand with interest at the Royal Bank of Canada prime commercial rate of interest for its most creditworthy customers plus 6% per annum;
- (c) implement the buy-sell procedure as set out in Section 9.01 hereof;
- (d) waive the Default provided, however, that any waiver of a particular Default shall not operate as a waiver of any subsequent or continuing Default.

8. BUY-SELL PROCEDURE

8.01 If any of the Parties are desirous of purchasing the Ownership Interest of a Defaulting Party as defined in Section 8.02 hereof, the transaction shall be initiated and completed in the following manner. The said party (hereinafter referred to as the "Offeror") shall give to the other party (hereinafter referred to as the "Offeree") notice in writing which shall contain the following terms and provisions:

- (a) the price for the Ownership Interest to be sold;

- (b) an offer to buy all of the Ownership Interest owned by the Offeree at a fixed price determined solely by the Offeror;
- (c) an offer to sell all of the Ownership Interest owned by the Offeror to the Offeree at a fixed price determined solely by the Offeror;
- (d) payment of an amount equal to the total purchase price in cash or by certified cheque on closing.

8.02 Upon receipt of the notice, the Offeree may, within a period of 30 days thereafter, accept either one of the offers contained in the notice and shall give written notification to the Offeror accepting either the Offeror's offer to purchase or the Offeror's offer to sell as contained in the notice.

8.03 The individual parties hereto agree that failure to accept within the time limited as aforesaid shall be for all intents and purposes deemed to have been a rejection of the Offeror's offer to purchase in the same manner as if the Offeree had, in fact, rejected such offer to purchase by notice in writing. The appropriate offer in accordance with the foregoing and acceptance thereof by either notice in writing or the failure of the Offeree to accept the same shall be deemed to constitute a binding agreement of purchase and sale as set out in the Offeror's notice and in the terms and provisions of this Agreement. The transaction or transactions of purchase and sale arising from the foregoing shall be completed within sixty days after acceptance.

8.04 In the event of a sale of an Ownership Interest in the said Business as herein provided for, the party selling shall in this Section be referred to as the "Seller" and the party purchasing shall in this Section be referred to as the "Purchaser", and the following additional provisions shall apply:

- (a) the date scheduled for closing (the "Closing") may be at any earlier date agreed to and fixed by the individual parties hereto;
  - (b) any amount payable under the agreement of purchase and sale or other agreed transaction shall be paid by way of cash or by way of certified cheque;
  - (c) if, upon the date set for Closing, the Parties shall be indebted to the Seller in an amount recorded on the books of the Parties and verified by the auditors/accountants of the Parties, such indebtedness shall be paid to the Seller by the Parties at the time of Closing;
  - (d) if, upon the date set for Closing, the Seller shall be indebted to the Parties in an amount so recorded and verified, the Purchaser shall be entitled under the purchase price to pay, satisfy and discharge all or any portion of such indebtedness and to receive and to take credit against the purchase for the amount or amounts so paid on account of such indebtedness;
  - (e) if, on the date of Closing, the Seller is responsible on any covenant for the liabilities of Business the Purchaser shall procure for the Seller and deliver to him at the time of closing releases from any such covenants or guarantees or, failing that, shall indemnify the Seller from any claim, action, demand or liability that may arise by reason of such covenants or guarantees;

- (f) if, on the date of Closing, the Seller shall have any securities lodged with any person, including the Parties' bankers, to secure any indebtedness of the Parties, then the Purchaser shall deliver the same free and clear of any claims in connection with such indebtedness to the Seller. In the event the Purchaser is unable to deliver the same, then the Purchaser shall execute all such documents as may be reasonably required in order to indemnify and save harmless the Seller in relation thereto;
- (g) if, on the date of Closing, the Seller shall, for any reason, fail or refuse to complete the transaction, the Purchaser shall have the right upon such default without prejudice to any other rights which the Purchaser may have, upon payment by the Purchaser of the balance due on closing (less or plus any adjustment herein permitted) to the credit of the Seller in any chartered bank in the Province of British Columbia or the solicitors for the Business on behalf of and in the name of the Seller to complete the transaction as aforesaid and the Seller hereby irrevocably constitutes the Purchaser the true and lawful attorney of the Seller to complete the transaction and to execute any and every document necessary in that behalf;
- (h) between the date of any offer and the date of Closing of any ensuing transaction neither the Seller nor the Purchaser shall do or cause to be done anything except in the ordinary course of business;
- (i) notwithstanding any term or provision of this Agreement to the contrary, once any of the sale provisions hereinbefore referred to are invoked or become operative pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement, no other offer or notice of sale or intention to sell shall be given or accepted until the Closing or termination of the ensuing transaction.

9 NO PARTNERSHIP

9.01 Except as otherwise expressed in this Agreement, the rights and obligations of the Parties will be, in each case, several, and will not be or be construed to be either joint or joint and several. Nothing contained in this Agreement will, except to the extent specifically authorized hereunder, be deemed to constitute a Party a partner, an agent or legal representative of the other Parties. It is intended that this Agreement will not create the relationship of a partnership among the Parties and that no act done by any Party pursuant to the provisions hereof will operate to create such a relationship.

9.02 Each Party shall be responsible for and pay their own respective corporate and personal tax and duty obligations, whether in Canada, the United States, or elsewhere, and each of the Parties shall hold the other and the Joint Venture harmless and agree to indemnify them for those tax and duty obligations, as well as and costs of collection, interest, fines, penalties, or litigation.

10 CONFIDENTIALITY

10.01 The making of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated in this Agreement will be maintained as strictly confidential, and subject to the requirement of law and of governmental and regulatory authorities, none of the Parties will make any disclosure concerning the terms or conditions of this transaction or any other aspect of their dealings, including, but not limited to, information relating to finances, customers, technologies, or trade secrets except with the written consent of the other Parties or as is necessary in order to carry out their respective contributory duties under the terms of this Agreement.

10.02 The above restrictions will not apply to any information that:

- (a) is in the public domain through no fault of the recipient;
- (b) is authorized for disclosure by the disclosing Party;
- (c) is received by the recipient from another unrestricted source;
- (d) is independently developed by the recipient; or
- (e) is lawfully required to be disclosed by a court or other judicial proceeding in any jurisdiction.

10.03 The Parties agree that because monetary damages alone would be insufficient to consummate for a breach of these confidentiality provisions, any Party may seek any judicial, nonjudicial or extraordinary relief available in any court with competent jurisdiction to prevent the breach of these provisions. This remedy is in addition to any other remedies that may be available.

11 GENERAL PROVISIONS

11.01 This Agreement shall terminate:

- (a) if either Party sells or otherwise disposes of its Ownership Interest in the Business;
- (b) The parties, acting together, collectively sell the Business after which this Agreement will cease to have any effect or be binding upon the parties except in respect of the resolution of the rights and obligations of the parties during the period prior to such sale and the payment of all monies between the parties arising as a result;
- (c) if the Parties hereto consent in writing to the termination hereof; or
- (d) in accordance with Section 5.01(viii) hereof.

11.02 The Parties shall execute such further assurances and other documents and instruments and do such further and other things as may be necessary to implement and carry out the intent of this Agreement.

11.03 The provisions herein constitute the entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes all previous expectations, understandings, communications, representations and agreements, whether verbal or written, including the LOI, between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof.

11.04 If any provision of this Agreement is unenforceable or invalid for any reason whatever, it shall not affect the enforceability or validity of the remaining provisions of this Agreement and such provision shall be severable from the remainder of this Agreement.

NEWS RELEASE

Lexaria Enters Joint Venture with Enertopia Corp in Medical Marihuana Industry

Kelowna, BC—March 5, 2014 - Lexaria Corp. (LXRP-OTCQB) (LXX-CSE) (the "Company" or "Lexaria") reports that its board of directors has decided to make a strategic entry into the medical marihuana business by way of an important Joint Venture with Enertopia Corp. (TOP-CSE, ENRT-OTCQB) Robert McAllister, CEO and Chair of Enertopia Corp, has also agreed to join the Advisory Board of Lexaria Corp, in order to evaluate and negotiate marijuana acquisitions and joint ventures.

Under the terms of the Agreement, Lexaria Corp has agreed to pay Enertopia 1 million restricted common shares in return for Enertopia's participation. Lexaria has also agreed to pay 500,000 restricted common shares to Mr. McAllister in return for his participation on the Lexaria Advisory Board. Following the issuance of these shares, Lexaria will have a total of 18,431,452 shares issued and outstanding, and 21,256,452 shares fully diluted.

"The regulated marihuana industry is attracting large capital flows as investors throughout North America are recognizing this rare opportunity to participate financially in the early days of a brand new industry sector," commented Lexaria President, Chris Bunka. "Although Lexaria has devoted its history exclusively to the oil & gas industry, we have an obligation to shareholders to concentrate on increasing shareholder value, and we believe there is no greater opportunity to achieve this today other than through participation within the regulated marijuana sector."

Robert McAllister, President of Enertopia, said "Enertopia is pleased to welcome Lexaria as its strategic partner in the fast-moving medical marihuana sector. The two companies working together should be able to close on larger marihuana projects that might be out of reach of a smaller company."

Lexaria will not participate in Enertopia's pre-existing medical marihuana operations. Instead, Lexaria expects to utilize Enertopia's position as a recognized leader in the industry, to enter new agreements that are accretive to both Enertopia and Lexaria.

Lexaria and Enertopia will share a reciprocal Right Of First Refusal so that each company may benefit from exposure to project opportunities sourced by the other company.

Health Canada approved producers under the new Medical for Marihuana Regulations Purposes (MMRP) will also be allowed to export to other countries in the world. The new MMRP program is scheduled to be fully in effect on April 1, 2014. Health Canada projects greater than 55% per annum growth in each of the next nine years in the number of licensed customers to a projected total of more than 430,000 by 2024. In 2002, there were only 477 authorized patients in Canada.

To illustrate the inherent demand, Health Canada has published actual use data from calendar year 2012. In January 2012 there were 13,781 persons across Canada authorized to possess medical marihuana. By December of 2012 that had increased to 28,115 persons: an increase of more than 100% in a single year.

Metrics that interested parties can use to roughly gauge the scope of the industry are that an average patient might use a minimum of 1 gram per day which is 365 grams or 0.8 pounds per year. At an expected price of $7.60 per gram, this equates to potential revenue per patient of $2,774 per year.

Another metric used by existing licensed growers of medical marihuana is that each square foot of active growing space will yield in excess of $1,000 per year, in gross revenue, assuming of course that all production that is grown is in fact sold to authorized persons.

Lexaria is actively investigating opportunities in this exciting sector and expects to have additional developments to report in the weeks to come.

Lexaria Corp continues to own valuable oil and gas assets at Belmont Lake, Mississippi that produce monthly revenue, and will seek to maximize the value of those assets through all means possible in the months ahead. The Belmont Lake oilfield remains an important cash flow-generating asset.

As of October 31, 2013, the most recent independent reserve report prepared by Veazey & Associates, LLC estimated all future cash flows due to Lexaria from Belmont Lake at $5,985,869 (NET, Discounted at 10% per annum) for Proved Reserves; and an additional $805,399 (NET, Discounted at 10% per annum) for Possible Undeveloped Reserves.

About Lexaria

Lexaria's shares are quoted in the USA with symbol LXP and in Canada with symbol LXX. The company searches for projects that could provide potential above-market returns.

Such forward looking statements also include estimated cash flows, revenue and current and/or future rates of production of oil and natural gas, which can and will fluctuate for a variety of reasons; oil and gas reserve quantities produced by third parties; and intentions to participate in future exploration drilling. Adverse weather conditions including but not limited to surface flooding can delay operations, impact production, and cause reductions in revenue. The Company may not have sufficient expertise to thoroughly exploit its oil and gas properties. The Company may not have sufficient funding to thoroughly explore, drill or develop its properties. Access to capital, or lack thereof, is a major risk and there is no assurance that the Company will be able to raise required working capital. Current oil and gas production rates may not be sustainable and targeted production rates may not occur. Factors which could cause actual results to differ materially from those estimated by the Company include, but are not limited to, government regulation, managing and maintaining growth, the effect of adverse publicity, litigation, competition and other factors which may be identified from time to time in the Company's public announcements and filings. There is no assurance that the Belmont Lake oilfield cashflows will continue. There is no assurance that the joint venture with Enertopia will produce any meaningful business opportunities to Lexaria.
